Packing and Shipping:

Venetian Window Blinds Packaging and Shipping:
Venetian window blinds are usually shipped in a cardboard box. The box should be large enough to fit the blinds comfortably and should be securely sealed with tape to prevent any damage during transit. The blinds should be secured in the box with packaging foam and/or bubble wrap to ensure they are not damaged during transport.
If the blinds are being shipped via a courier, it is advisable to ensure the box is clearly labelled with the customer's name and address, as well as any additional instructions that may be necessary for delivery.
